It is in the heart of the Entre-Deux-Mers that this house of character is located. In the quiet of a hamlet, in a green environment, this building of about 192 m² is articulated on 2 levels, located on a wooded plot of 593 m². Built in 1890, this property will certainly seduce lovers of the old revisited.

The stone and stone walls make it a unique and authentic place, furnished with contemporary elements.

The entrance leads us directly to the main living room where a beautiful fireplace with a wood stove throne majestically.

A pretty wooden door gives access to the first parental suite of the house: the room offers a pleasant view of the garden on one side and on the other side you have access to a large dressing room and the bathroom.

From the living room, a beautiful opening allows access to the corridor to the kitchen with contemporary lines, fully equipped. Spacious, it invites conviviality in a space bathed in light thanks to a bay window and a glass door overlooking a veranda.

The corridor also allows access to a bright laundry room thanks to the skylight, a pretty bathroom bathed in light and finally the large living room offering a beautiful opening on the garden. A furnished workspace invites concentration and reflection.

A charming wooden staircase leads to the first floor. It consists of a 1st lounge/ games/ reading and a sleeping area heated by a beautiful stove connected to the insert of the ground floor. Then a parental suite of a pleasant area to complete this level.
