Seize this unique opportunity and discover this exceptional 3-room apartment, which is part of a historic 14th century church and impresses with both its unique charm and its wonderful location.

The property, which has recently been completely renovated with great attention to detail, is now waiting for its new occupants. As a real highlight, this apartment also boasts a variety of views, as a cycle path leads from here to the popular destinations of Porto Ercole, Porto Santo Stefano and Orbetello. This makes it easy to explore and experience the multifaceted beauty of Italy. But that's not all. The apartment is fully furnished and therefore offers immediate comfort without any further investment. From stylish furniture and a fully equipped kitchen to trendy home accessories, everything has been thought of to give you the best possible start to your new home. In addition to the apartment, there is a fantastic small garden of 50 m², which is ideal for relaxing hours outdoors and enjoying the sunshine of the Mediterranean climate. There is also a condominial garden at your disposal, which radiates a harmonious atmosphere and idyllic tranquillity.

Whether you are looking for an exclusive vacation home, want to give your life a new start or simply wish to make an investment in a piece of history, this unique 3-room apartment is sure to meet all your expectations and more.
