Playa Honda is minutes from Arrecife and the airport, and has some excellent shopping facilities. It has a large beach, and many small shops and restaurants. Despite its very central location it has a village feel, and is mostly residential.

Arrecife is the island's capital city. It is the home to the impressive Grand Hotel that is the tallest building on the island, it is full of shops and cafes, as well as the harbour and historic castles, it has its own beach.
