We present a fantastic 3 bedroom villa located in Aldoar, in one of the quietest and most sought-after areas of Porto. This residence stands out for its privileged location, inserted in a quiet and residential area, ideal for those who value serenity without giving up proximity to the city center and all essential services.

With three large and well-lit bedrooms, this villa offers a generous interior space, designed to provide comfort and well-being to the whole family. The layout of the rooms allows for excellent functionality and use of space.

Outside, there is a charming garden, perfect for outdoor leisure time.

In addition to all this, a villa benefits from excellent access, allowing an easy and quick connection to the main roads of the city, as well as public transport, schools, shops and transport

This is a unique opportunity for those looking for a spacious, well-located villa with exceptional outdoor space, whether for their own home or as an investment in the real estate market
