Learn more about the Bom Fim neighborhood:

Those who are from Porto Alegre certainly have memories and good stories that take place or involve in some way the Bom Fim neighborhood. The history of the region is mixed with that of the capital of Rio Grande do Sul in many moments and contributes to mark countless lives in Porto Alegre.

The "darling of the city" as it is called by some, mixes bohemian, cultured and intellectual life, full of tradition, youth and art in the same place. But if you're not from the city (yet), get ready to get to know one of the best neighborhoods and fall in love.

One of the hallmarks of the neighborhood is precisely the tranquility and infrastructure available to its residents. Part of the central area of Porto Alegre provides everything just a few meters away.

Tree-lined streets, neighborhood in full balance between peace and quiet. Parks, squares and various spaces to maintain quality of life as well. All of this is very easy to find in a few steps.

As part of an excellent infrastructure, we cannot fail to mention commerce for the richness of diversity and novelties at all times. There are numerous shopping centers, shopping malls, supermarkets, street stores and much more. Residents can go shopping quickly and efficiently, without requiring much commuting.

Many options for commerce, Bom Fim Market which, since 1928 (reopened in 2000), has brought several options. Among them, bars, flower shops, handicraft stores, pet shops, coffee shops and much more.
